

SPEAKING

Talking about where you are from

LEVEL

Beginner

NUMBER

EN_ A1_1044S

LANGUAGE

English

Learning outcomes

- I can give very basic information about where I'm from, where I live and which languages I speak.
- I can talk about my daily routine in very simple terms.

Hello, I'm Didier. I'm from France. I speak French and I live in Paris.
Nice to meet you.

Pronunciation

parks

Pronunciation

parks

streets

Pronunciation

parks

streets

apartments

Pronunciation

parks

streets

apartments

houses

Pronunciation

parks

streets

apartments

houses

cinemas

Pronunciation

parks

streets

apartments

houses

cinemas

Add s to form regular plural nouns.

Pronunciation

tomatoes

Pronunciation

tomatoes

potatoes

Pronunciation

tomatoes

potatoes

churches

Pronunciation

tomatoes

potatoes

churches

Add es to form some plural nouns.

Change to plurals

1

There is one church.

2

There is one park.

3

There is one car.

4

There is one tomato.

Vocabulary review

Real-life language review

The Big Apple is a nickname for New York City.

There's a university in my city.

I wake up at six but I get up at 8.

Does your city have a nickname?

There's is the short form of ...

What's the difference between to wake up and to get up?

Talking about where you are from France is a country in Europe.

I live in a big city called Paris.

There are lots of bars and restaurants.

I live in an apartment with my girlfriend.

Complete the dialogue (1/2)

_____, I'm Lucia.

Hi! I'm Sergio. Nice to _____ you.

Where are you _____?

_____ from Spain. I'm _____. And you?

Spanish

I'm

Hello

meet from

Complete the dialogue (2/2)

I'm _____. I live in Berlin.

I have to run, I'm late for work. _____ you later.

_____.

See

Goodbye

German

Talking about where you are from

You can do this activity in breakout rooms.

Talk to a classmate about where you're from.
Use the sentences below to help you.

I'm from

I speak...

I live...

Talking about where you are from

Talk about your country, city, town or village.

Discuss with your classmates

Talk to your classmates about your daily routine

Talk about these pictures

Who does this?

Find a classmate or think of someone you know who does two of these things.

Goes shopping at the weekend

Likes walking in the park

Lives on the coast

Watches films at the cinema

Ex.

My dad watches films at the cinema and likes walking in the park.

End of the lesson

Idiom

One horse town

Meaning: a very small town or village

Example: It's a one horse town, so it's very quiet most of the year. But in summer there are lots of festivals.

Additional practice

Match the sentences

1 What's...

2 I go...

3 I speak...

4 I live in...

5 There is...

6 There are two...

7 I live in an apartment...

a with my girlfriend.

b your favourite place?

c cinemas in my town.

d two languages.

e to university.

f a city.

g one shop on my street.

Pronunciation

Which words from this lesson are difficult to say out loud?
The pronunciation pages have some examples.

Pronunciation

Imagine a conversation

Imagine a conversation between you and a friend. Write a dialogue using the phrases and words on page 4. You can use sentences from pages 5 and 6.

Hello!	My friend...
Do you...?	I am...
How are you?	Good-bye!

Describe the person

Imagine who this woman is. Where is she from and where does she live? What does she like?

She lives...

She likes...

She's got...

She's...

Answer key

Exercise p.14

1. There are two churches. – 2. There are two parks. – 3. There are two cars. –
4. There are two tomatoes.

Exercise p.18/19

Hello – meet – from – I'm – Spanish – German – See – Goodbye

Answer key

Exercise p.28

1. b – 2. e – 3. d – 4. f – 5. g – 6. c – 7. a

Summary

Forming plural nouns:

- Add s or es to create regular plural nouns

Giving information about yourself:

- Talk about where you are from
- Talk about your daily routine

Vocabulary

apartments

potatoes

bars restaurants

I have to run!

Notes

