

VOCABULARY

Emotions

LEVEL

Elementary (A2)

NUMBER

EN_A2_2081V

LANGUAGE

English

Learning outcomes

- I can talk about my feelings and emotions in simple terms.
- I can describe some personality types that I like among my friends.

Warm-up

Who is the friendliest person you know?

Describe this person to your classmates!

Vocabulary

friendly

Friendly people are always nice to others.

honest

I am an honest person because I always tell the truth.

clever

My friend is clever because she learns easily.

Vocabulary

shy

It is hard to meet new people, since I am very shy.

outgoing

An outgoing person is friendly and likes to meet new people.

Emotions and personalities

My new classmates are very nice and friendly.

I am very shy, so it takes time to meet new friends.

Emotions and personalities

I am outgoing and not very shy around new people.

My sister is very clever and always passes her exams.

I think being honest is the most important thing.

I like to spend time with people who are friendly and outgoing.

Which words have similar meanings?

clever

outgoing friendly

honest sincere smart

Fill in the gaps

Fill in the gaps with the correct word. More than one answer is possible.

- 1 I love spending time around lots of different people and have lots of energy. Many people say I am very _____.
- 2 _____ people are easy to get on with and very helpful.
- 3 She loves to study and go to school. She is very _____.
- 4 I'm very _____ when I first meet people, but then I warm up.
- 5 He always tells the truth. He is an _____ person.

friendly

clever

outgoing honest

shy

I'm shy at first, but then I warm up.

When you warm up to others, you begin to like or enjoy their company.

Discuss

Answer the question below.

What personality do you look for in a friend?

Share your answer with the rest of the class!

Vocabulary

surprised

I feel surprised when I am not expecting something.

content

She is feeling peaceful and content.

joyful

I feel joyful on warm summer days.

Vocabulary

scared

After watching the horror movie, I felt very scared.

depressed

Sometimes she feels sad and depressed.

Emotions and personalities

What are you scared of?

I was surprised when he gave me a present.

Emotions and personalities

I am feeling joyful and happy today.

Are you scared of spiders?

When I am depressed, I talk to my friends.

I feel content when I spend time in nature.

Matching

Match the word to the picture.

1

2

3

4

5

6 a surprised b shy

c depressed

d clever

e scared

f outgoing

Discuss

1. In breakout rooms, answer the questions below.
2. Then, together as a class, share one of your breakout room partner's answers.

1 Are you scared of anything?

2 When was the last time you were surprised?

3 What can people do when they feel depressed?

Vocabulary

to laugh

The baby is laughing.

glad

I feel glad when I am happy or content.

suspicious

He is suspicious that they are talking about her.

Vocabulary

emotional

He is emotional – he gets both sad and happy easily.

cranky

When I don't get any sleep, I am cranky the next day.

Emotions and personalities

I am suspicious that they have a secret.

She is feeling depressed and emotional today.

Emotions and personalities

I am so glad that you are visiting soon!

My neighbour gets cranky when we make too much noise.

It is important to laugh at least once a day.

Being emotional is not necessarily a bad thing.

Discuss

1. What do you think is your best characteristic? Your worst?
2. Use the words below to help you!

outgoing

cranky

clever

shy

Discuss

Answer the questions below.

What are some things that make you feel cranky?

What are some things that make you feel joyful?

End of the lesson

Idiom

on pins and needles

Meaning: to be nervous about something that is going to happen

Example: I've been on pins and needles all day, waiting to hear back about the job.

Additional practice

Fill in the gaps

Complete this dialogue with the correct word.

- 1 What personality do you look for in a friend? I really like _____ people. They can talk to anyone!
- 2 Oh dear, I'm the opposite. I'm very _____.
- 3 Well, you're really _____. You always tell the truth when I ask you something. It's important.
- 4 Thanks. I look for _____ people. Someone who is always smiling.
- 5 That's important too. One thing that isn't as important is if someone is _____ or not. You don't have to be smart to be a nice person.

friendly

clever

outgoing honest

shy

Rewrite the sentences

Rewrite the sentences using the pronoun they.

1 He is very friendly and outgoing.

They are very friendly and outgoing.

2 She is very joyful.

3 Are you feeling depressed?

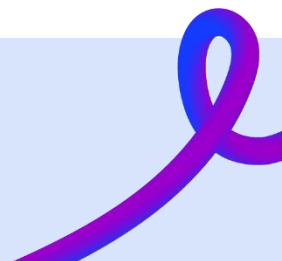

4 Is he very clever?

5 I am scared of snakes.

6 She is feeling peaceful and content.

My friend's party

1. Read the text.
2. Then answer the questions below.

I'm Amanda. My best friend, Sam, is one of the friendliest people I know. She always makes me laugh, and we have lots of fun together. Tomorrow is her big birthday party. Sam doesn't know about the party yet – she'll be so surprised! To be honest, I'm a bit suspicious that she already knows about it.

I was thinking about inviting my classmate, Mark, but he is very shy. If he stays too long at an event with lots of people, he gets a bit cranky. I don't think I will invite him this time.

1. Why doesn't Amanda want to invite Mark to the party?
2. Does Sam know about the party?
3. How does Amanda know Mark?

Your party

Answer the questions below.

What kind of people would you invite to a party at your house?

Are there many different personalities in your circle of friends?

Discuss

Answer the questions below.

Do you think it's true that opposites attract?

Why or why not?

Answer key

P.8:

clever, smart

outgoing, friendly honest, sincere

P.9: 1.) outgoing/friendly 2.) friendly/outgoing 3.) clever 4.) shy 5.) honest

P.16: 1.) d 2.) b 3.) a 4.) e 5.) c 6.) f

P.27: 1.) outgoing 2.) shy 3.) honest 4.) friendly 5.) clever

P.28: 2.) They are very joyful 3.) Are they feeling depressed? 4.) Are they very clever? 5.) They are scared of snakes 6.) They are feeling peaceful and content.

P.29:

1.) Amanda doesn't want to invite Mark to the party because he is very shy. He gets a bit cranky when he is around lots of people.

2.) Sam doesn't know about the party (but Amanda believes that she already knows about it somehow).

3.) Amanda knows Mark from school. Mark is her classmate.

Summary

Feelings and emotions

- surprised; content; joyful; scared; depressed; glad
- suspicious; emotional; cranky; to laugh

Describing personality

- friendly; honest; clever
- shy; outgoing

Vocabulary

friendly

honest

clever shy

outgoing to warm up surprised content

joyful

scared

depressed

to laugh

glad suspicious emotional cranky

