

COMMUNICATION

Let's party!

LEVEL

Beginner (A1)

NUMBER

EN_A1_2122X

LANGUAGE

English

Learning outcomes

- I can state the details of an event.
- I can politely invite someone to an event using simple terms.

Don't be late for the party!

Let's party!

occasion

A wedding is a special occasion.

formal

People usually wear formal clothes to a wedding.

informal

A barbecue is usually an informal occasion.

Let's party!

to reply

I need to reply to this invitation.

date

We need to choose a date for our party.

Let's party!

I wear a suit to formal events.

Did you set a date for your wedding?

Let's party!

We eat a nice dinner on special occasions.

The date of the party is October 6th.

Please reply to my invitation by phone or mail.

Her birthday party was an informal event.

Formal or informal?

Is this a formal or informal occasion? What is the occasion?

Match the sentences

In breakout rooms or together as a class, match the sentences.

1 I am having a party...

2 Could you please...

3 We will have...

4 It is an informal...

5 It's a formal...

a reply as soon as possible?

b occasion, so you can wear jeans and a t-shirt.

c occasion, so please wear a suit.

d a formal dinner.

e on Friday at 8 o'clock.

Review of polite questions

- Ask questions politely using could, would, or can. Remember to say please!

Statement	Polite Question
Reply to my invitation.	Could you please reply to my invitation?
Bring a snack or drink.	Can you please bring a snack or a drink?
Call me.	Would you call me please?

Talking about details

- To tell people details about an event, remember to use at for times and places, and on for specific days.

time, place, day

The party...

is at the Grand Central hotel.

The event...

was on Friday.

The wedding...

will be on Tuesday the 22nd.

Match the sentences

1 The wedding is...

2 The formal breakfast is...

3 The dinner...

4 The event is on...

5 The party is...

a was last night.

b at the old church.

c Tuesday, October 2nd.

d on Monday at 9 pm.

e at 9 am.

Write an invitation

Use the details below to write an invitation to an event.

Place: Jake's Restaurant

Event: dinner party

Time: 7:00pm

Date: March 13th

Let's party!

to serve

She is serving coffee.

to bring

The waiter is bringing food.

Let's party!

dessert

I'm having chocolate cake for dessert.

snack

We are serving cheese and fruit as snacks.

dish

There are a variety of dishes on the table.
Help yourself!

Let's party!

We are serving snacks at the party.

We are having a dinner party on Saturday.

Let's party!

What food are you serving?

We are serving fruit for dessert.

I am bringing crisps and other snacks.

Can you please bring some drinks?

Match the word to the right list

1 wine

2 serve

3 occasion

4 formal

5 reply

6 bring

7 informal

8 dessert

9 food

Noun

Verb

Adjective

Fill in the gaps

John

Hi Sarah. Would you _____ to come to my party?

Sure! What is the _____ and time?

Sarah

John

It's on Friday _____ 7 o'clock.

Sounds great! Should I _____ anything with me?

Sarah

Fill in the gaps

John

It's a potluck dinner, so please bring a _____ or a drink.

Great. Can I _____ a friend too?

Sarah

John

_____, no problem. See you then!

We're having a potluck dinner.

A potluck dinner is a meal where guests bring different dishes to share with the other guests.

It is a word used mainly in the US.

Your party

Read the instructions below and invite your classmates to your party.

You are having a party!

When is it?

Where is it?

What's the occasion?

End of the lesson

Idiom

the life of the party

Meaning: someone who is very energetic and entertaining at a party or social event

Example: Jill is the life of the party! She knows all the best jokes.

Additional practice

Fill in the gaps

1 Please _____ a friend.

2 I _____ the red wine!

3 We are having a _____ in the park.

4 My birthday party is not very _____.

5 Did you _____ all of the food at the party?

formal invite brought picnic see

Transform the sentences to the past simple

1 I am having a party.

I had a party.

2 We serve fish and meat.

3 I bring white wine.

4 He invites me to the event.

5 We celebrate a special occasion.

6 We enjoy the birthday party.

Write an invitation

You're spending Thanksgiving in the US and you want to invite your friends out.

Write a short invitation, telling them when, where and what time to meet.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Formal or informal?

Which events are usually formal in your country?
What do you wear?

Which events are usually informal?
What do you wear?

Answer key

P.9: 1) e, 2) a, 3) d, 4) b, 5) c

P.12: 1) b, 2) e, 3) a, 4) c, 5) d

P.18: Nouns: wine, occasion, dessert, food. Verbs: serve, reply, bring. Adjectives: informal, formal

P.19: like, date, at, bring

P. 20: snack, bring, Sure

Answer key

P.26: 1) invite, 2) brought, 3) picnic, 4) formal, 5) see

P.27: 2) We served fish and meat. 3) She brought white wine. 4) He invited me to the event.
5) We celebrated a special occasion. 6) We enjoyed the birthday party.

Summary

Polite questions review:

- Ask questions politely using could, would, or can. Remember to say please!
- Could you please reply to my invitation?

Details of an event:

- To tell people details about an event, remember to use at for times and places, and on for specific days.
- It is on Friday at 2 pm.

Vocabulary for events:

- occasion, formal, informal, to reply, date

Vocabulary for food:

- to serve, to bring, dessert, snack, dish

Vocabulary

occasion

formal informal

to reply

date

to serve

to bring dessert

snack

dish

