

COMMUNICATION

Count to 20!

LEVEL

Beginner

NUMBER

EN_A1_1042X

LANGUAGE

English

Learning outcomes

- I can count from one to twenty in English.
- I can use 'there is' and 'there are' to describe my surroundings in very simple terms.

One plus one is two.

Numbers

one

two

1

2

I have one brother.

I have two sisters.

Numbers

three four five

3

4

5

There are three cars.

Two plus two equals
four.

Give me a high five!

Numbers

six seven eight

6

7

8

Three plus three equals six.

Seven is my favourite number.

I get up at eight o'clock.

Numbers

nine ten

9

10

I go to work at nine o'clock.

There are ten years in a decade.

Counting objects

There is one apple.

There are two carrots.

Match the words to the numbers

3

8 a eight b four c three

d seven

7

4

What can you see in the picture?

one apple

one banana

two apples

two bananas

Numbers

eleven twelve thirteen

11

12

13

There are eleven players on a football team.

Twelve is a dozen.

The number thirteen is unlucky in some countries.

Numbers

fourteen fifteen

14

15

Seven plus seven equals
fourteen.

There are fifteen players on a rugby team.

Numbers

sixteen seventeen

eighteen

16

17

18

I'm sixteen years old.

You can drive a car when you are seventeen years old.

You are an adult at eighteen years old.

Numbers

nineteen twenty

19 20

The last of your teenage years
– nineteen.

Ten plus ten equals twenty.

How old are you?

I am nineteen years old.

We are twenty years old.

Make a sentence with these words am nineteen

I

years old.

Fill in the blanks

I am _____ years old. I am _____ England. I speak _____ languages - _____ and French. How many languages do you speak?

English

thirteen

two from

Practise numbers

You can do this activity in breakout rooms.

Your classmate will say ten numbers.
Write the numbers you hear. Say them out loud.

Then swap and repeat.

Talking about singular objects

- Use there is to talk about singular objects.

one world

one sun

There is one world.

There is one sun.

” Talking about plural objects

- Use there are to talk about plural objects.

three bedrooms

There are three bedrooms in my house.

five people

There are five people in my family.

Short forms

There's one chocolate bar on the table.

~~There're~~ three chocolate bars on the table.

We often shorten there is to there's in spoken and written English.

It is less common to shorten there are, especially in writing.

There is

There is one car.

There is one zebra.

There are

There are two eggs.

There are four countries in the United Kingdom.

There are five students.

How many are there?

There is one orange.

There are two tomatoes.

Singular and plural (1/2)

There is one world.

There are two people.

Singular and plural (2/2)

There are eleven players on a football team.

There are twelve months in a year.

Which answer is correct?

1 _____ twelve months in a year.

a. There are

b. There is

2 _____ one bedroom in my house.

a. There are

b. There is

Talk about your country

Ex.

Cities, languages...

End of the lesson

Idiom

Take five

Meaning: Take a short break

Example: Ok everyone, let's take five.

Additional practice

Match the number with the word

1	3
2	5
3	7
4	8
5	11
6	12
7	15
8	18
9	20

a	five b	twenty c	three
d	twelve
e	eight
f	eleven
g	eighteen
h	fifteen
i	seven

Match and complete

Match the phrases to the pictures and complete the gap with 'There is' or 'There are'.

a _____ one llama.

b _____ five dogs.

c _____ are three people.

d _____ one cat.

e _____ one sun.

f _____ twelve doughnuts.

Speaking

Use there is and there are to say what you see in the pictures.

What is in the pictures?

cup(s)

phone(s)

pig(s)

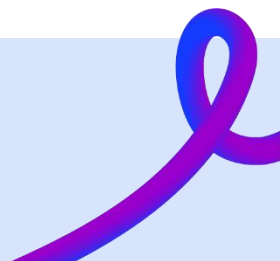

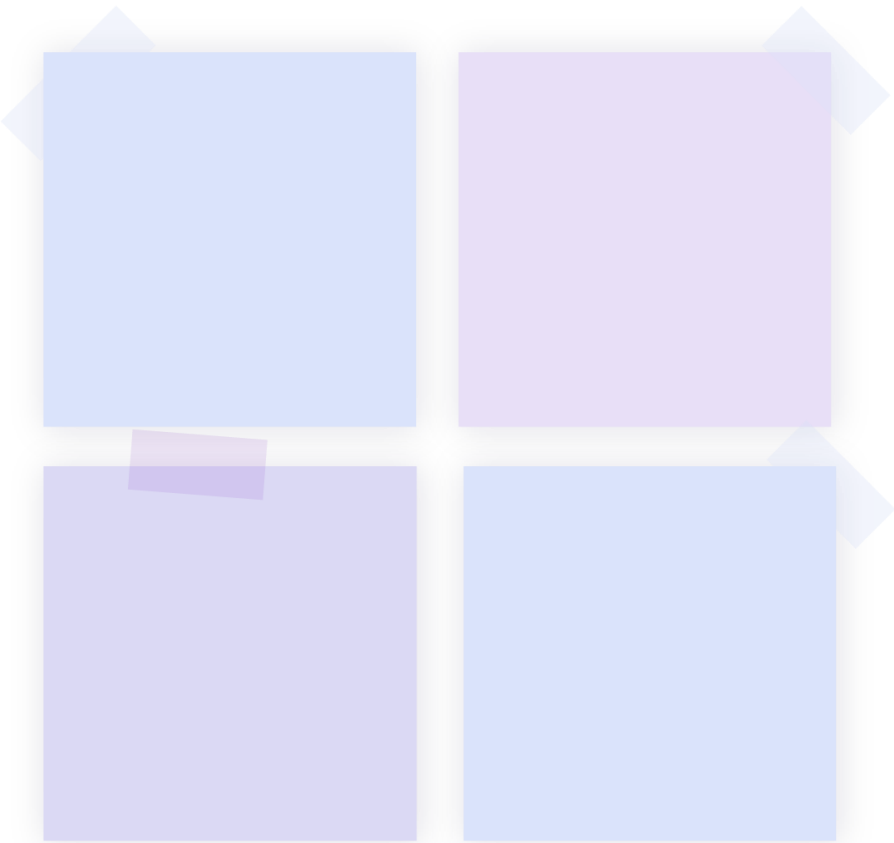

flower(s)

Make flashcards

Make flashcards of phrases with there is and there are from this lesson.

Answer key

Exercise p.9

1. B – 2. D – 3. A – 4. C

Exercise p.10

one banana

Exercise p.16

I am nineteen years old.

Exercise p.17

Thirteen – from – two – English

Exercise p. 27

1. a – 2. b.

Answer key

Exercise p.32

1. three 2. five 3. seven 4. eight 5. eleven 6. twelve 7. fifteen 8. eighteen
9. twenty

Summary

Numbers 1 to 20:

- one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty

There is and there are

- We use there is for singular nouns
- We use there are for plural nouns

Vocabulary

one

two three four five six

seven eight nine

ten

eleven twelve thirteen fourteen fifteen sixteen

seventeen

eighteen

nineteen

twenty

