

VOCABULARY

At the supermarket

LEVEL

Beginner

NUMBER

EN_A1_1111V

LANGUAGE

English

Learning outcomes

- I can identify some basic types of food on sale at the supermarket.
- I can talk about what food I buy at the supermarket using very simple terms.

I like meat and fish but Maria prefers vegetables.

Food

meat

Meat is a kind of food.

vegetables

There are lots of vegetables at the market.

Food

bread

I eat fresh bread every day.

fruit

Tom likes to eat fruit.

fish

Ellen does not like fish.

New vocabulary

I don't eat meat. I am vegetarian.

I only like vegetables.

New vocabulary

The bread is very good.

Steak is a type of meat.

We eat lots of fish.

I have fruit for breakfast.

Match the words to the pictures

1

2

3

4 a meat

b vegetables

c fruit

d fish

Which word does not belong?

vegetables

fish

green

meat

What can you see in the picture?

bread

meat

fruit

vegetables

At the supermarket

Where are the rolls?

They're in the bread aisle.

The supermarket is usually split into aisles.

Food

food

Vegetables, fruit, and meat are food.

chocolate

Chocolate is very sweet.

orange

Oranges grow on trees.

Food

lemon

I like tea with lemon.

onion

Onions are a kind of vegetable.

cookies

We all like to eat cookies.

Likes and dislikes

An orange is a healthy fruit.

I don't like onions.

Practise new words

I have fruit in the morning.

I eat meat every day.

We love chocolate.

Lemons are not vegetables.

Name the food

A

B

bread

fruit

Name the food

A

B

cookies

orange

What are your favourite foods?

onion fish flour meat bread vegetables chocolate fruit orange
lemon

Practise forming sentences

Which sentence matches the picture?

I do not eat vegetables.

I do not eat meat.

I buy lemons.

to buy

Mark buys food every Saturday.

Food

tomato

Is a tomato a fruit or a vegetable?

eggs

He eats eggs for breakfast.

flour

You use flour to make bread.

Practise new words

I buy food at the supermarket.

They really love cookies with chocolate.

Likes and dislikes

I use tomatoes to make sauce.

We like meat, but not fish.

Do you like eggs?

I need to buy flour.

Practise speaking about food

What do you like to buy at the supermarket?

What do you not like to buy?

What other foods do you know?

Which does not belong? Why?

1

2

3

4

End of the lesson

Idiom

Food for thought

Meaning: An idea or suggestion that is interesting and that you will think carefully about

Example: The workshop gave me lots of food for thought.

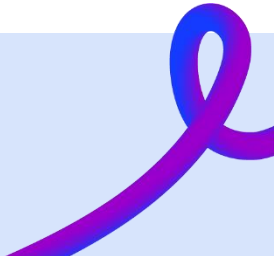

Additional practice

Make two lists

fruit and vegetables	other

- | | |
|-----------|---------|
| bread | flour |
| lemon | cookies |
| fish | orange |
| chocolate | eggs |
| tomato | onion |

Match the words to the pictures

1

2

3

4 a chocolate

b tomato c flour

d onion

Speaking

Which is more true for you? One or two? Tell your partner.

1

I often eat meat and I don't often eat vegetables. I like cookies and chocolate.

2

I sometimes eat meat and I often eat fish. I like fruit and vegetables a lot.

One is true for me. I don't often eat vegetables.

Two is true for me. I love fruit!

Neither is true for me. I never eat meat.

Write a shopping list

Write a typical shopping list for you. What do you buy every week?

1

4

2

5

3

6

Answer key

Exercise p.8

1d, 2c, 3b, 4a

Exercise p.9

green

Exercise p. 10

vegetables

Exercise p.16

A. fruit, B. bread

Exercise p.17

A. orange B. cookies

Exercise p.19

I do not eat meat.

Exercise p. 26

Bread because it is not something that comes from an animal.

Answer key

Exercise p.30

Fruit and Vegetables:

Lemon, Orange, Tomato, Onion

Other:

Bread, Flour, Cookies, Fish, Chocolate, Eggs

Exercise p.31

1) b 2) d 3) a 4) c

Summary

Food at the supermarket

- meat, fish, vegetables, bread, fruit, chocolate, orange, lemon, onion, cookies, tomato, eggs, flour

Talking about food you buy and like

- Using the verb to buy

Vocabulary

meat

vegetables

bread

fruit

fish

food

chocolate

orange

lemon

onion

cookies

to buy

tomato

eggs

flour

Notes

